Des Moines County Board of Supervisors

Burlington. IA. 52601

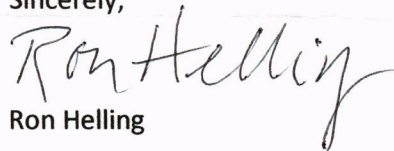

I am writing this letter in response to the open position on the Conservation Board. As a lifelong resident of Southeast Iowa, I feel I have an understanding of the historic role of how the County Conservation Board serves the residents of Des Moines County. I have lived in rural Des Moines County since 1993. I can appreciate the vision of past Boards in recognizing the need to enhance the quality of life in the county and the projects that have been developed, such as Big Hollow and the Flint River Trail. But I also recognize the Board also serves the residents of the county by being good stewards of the public money.

My professional career has been, primarily, in Health Care. During my professional career I have managed an ambulatory health care unit and been a regional administrator overseeing several units based in Iowa, Illinois and Ohio. This gave me opportunities to hire and evaluate direct reports, develop budgets, meet financial goals and help develop long term planning for the organization.

I have a passion for the outdoors. I am an avid fisherman and fish numerous bass tournaments in the area. I also enjoy fishing and camping at Big Hollow. I have served as past president of the Southeast Iowa Bassmasters and vice president of the Iowa Bass Federation. During my tenure on the Southeast Iowa Bassmasters we donated several hundred dollars towards the completion of Big Hollow. I also served on one of the planning committees organized to give input into the Big Hollow project. My family and I have spent several weekends enjoying the camping at Big Hollow I also serve on the Executive Board of the Friends of Geode and am proud of the enhancements we have made to that park and look forward to the completion of the concession stand at Geode.

I hope you will give me serious consideration to serving on the Conservation Board. I appreciate your time and I can be reached at 319-572-9525.

Sincerely,

Ron Helling

Des Moines County Board of Supervisors

Dear Sirs:

In a very few weeks, my tenure on the Des Moines County Conservation Board will expire and I would like to apply for reappointment to that body. Service on the board has been very rewarding and I believe I have come to understand the complex intricacies involved in the management of a quality park system for the citizens of Des Moines County.

The upcoming challenges facing the Conservation Board and the Board of Supervisors will be considerable. But the experiences I have gained in my initial service to the Conservation Board and a deep commitment to outdoor education and recreation will allow me to make a meaningful contribution to dealing successfully with those issues.

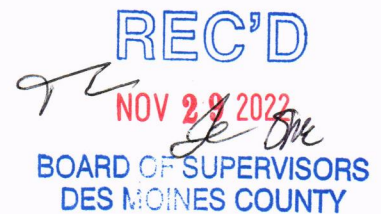

Please consider this letter as an application to be reappointed to a second term on the Des Moines Conservation Board.

Thank you,

Bob Hansen
